

calendar magnets

A calendar or schedule magnet on a refrigerator or filing cabinet is a convenience your clients and prospects will really appreciate. And with the staying power of a magnet, you gain consistent visibility and a lasting presence, making this a great investment in your referral business. Add your best photo and contact information, to create a custom-made promotional magnet that sells for you.

customer comments

"I've used Magnetic Attractions' photo calendars for several years as a key component of a successful marketing plan that has helped me become a leading area realtor. Magnetic Attractions has been extremely professional, efficient and helpful. It's great working with an organization that delivers what it promises, exceeds expectations and offers a good product at a good price!"
